

The Cervantes Group Press Release

Subject: Presentation of Teodoro Moscoso Award

San Juan, PR, June 24, 2011 The Puerto Rico Chamber of Commerce celebrated their annual Convention, with the slogan “Puerto Rico Business Hub” from June 24 through June 27. During this great convention the CCPR announced this year’s awarded entrepreneurs and offered an orientation of the Initial Process in Permitology, workshops on how to Conduct Business with the government and an economics and competitiveness forum. Also there were many exhibits and a conference of informatics and communication leaders. The Cervantes Group was recognized with the Teodoro Moscoso Award which in the past has been handed to several entrepreneurial companies who have made an impact on the workforce of Puerto Rico. The prize was presented by the Governor of Puerto Rico, Luis Fortuño to Joanna Bauzá (President) and Timothy Mullen (Managing Partner). “We are very proud not only to receive the award as such but for having so many good people in Puerto Rico support us and with faith in God, commitment and hard work we have done it” said Mr. Timothy Mullen, Managing Partner of The Cervantes Group.

The Cervantes Group is extremely grateful for this honor and would like to share it with all of those who supported The Cervantes Group. See the video.
